CASE LAW METHOD AND PROBLEM-SOLVING METHODOLOGIES

2011 - 2014: Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions starts coordinating Draft Privacy Bill's versions dealing with Data Protection + Surveillance Reform. Work halted.	July, 2018: The Srikrishna Committee releases a 176-page report, proposes the Personal Data Protection Bill, 2018 ("Draft Bill")
October, 2012: Justice A.P. Shah-headed Privacy Committee presents its integral report on international & national privacy standards.	October, 2018: MeitY closes consultation on the Draft Bill without making any details on comments public.
July 2017: MeitY constituted a Committee of Experts, chaired by Justice BN Srikrishna.	2019: Revised draft of the Personal Data Protection (PDP) Bill introduced in Lok Sabha as PDP Bill, 2019, with recommendations from Srikrishna Committee report, aiming to protect digital + non-digital data.
August, 2017: SC reaffirms 'privacy' as a fundamental right in Justice KS Puttaswamy v Union of India.	December, 2019: PDP Bill, 2019 sent to a Joint Parliamentary Committee ("JPC") for review from both the Houses.
August, 2017: Justice Srikrishna Committee on Data Protection constituted.	December, 2021: 2 years later, the JPC shared its report with a new version of the law - "The Data Protection Bill, 2021" ("DPB, 2021"). DBP 2021 not placed before the Parliament yet.

How do I structure my assignment?

Most assignment and exam assessment tasks in law require you to analyse and write answers to problem questions. We recommend that you follow the IRAC method of legal argument, specifically, that you structure your response to contain the following elements:
