Over the past five years, the institution has actively organized seminars, workshops, and conferences aimed at enriching the academic experience of law students. The breakdown of these events showcases the institution's commitment to fostering intellectual discourse and professional development within its community.

In the academic year 2018-2019, there were no seminars, workshops, or conferences conducted by the institution. However, in subsequent years, there has been a notable increase in the frequency of such events. In 2019-2020, the institution hosted 10 events, signalling a significant stride in its efforts to engage students in diverse learning opportunities.

Despite challenges posed by external circumstances, the institution continued its momentum, organizing 2 events in 2020-2021 and 6 events in 2021-2022. This steadfast dedication to scholarly engagement culminated in 8 events in 2022-2023, demonstrating a sustained commitment to the academic enrichment of its student body.

In total, over the span of five years, the institution has conducted 26 seminars, workshops, and conferences, serving as platforms for students to explore contemporary legal issues, engage with experts in the field, and cultivate practical skills vital for their professional journeys. These events underscore the institution's unwavering dedication to nurturing the intellectual growth and scholarly pursuits of its law students.
